Gomde Scotland is still filled with the presence of Chökyi Nyima Rinpoche, and the fellow students and friends who came to join in the celebrations. It feels like a huge blessing took place and we would like to express our sincere appreciation that everyone that came, helped and took part in this joyful occasion. I am sure that everyone’s effort and sheer hard work that made Rinpoche’s visit a success, will bind us together as a Sangha for many lifetimes to come in our common quest for enlightenment. Despite the difficulties no one lost their humour or sincerity. Thank you everyone for making the opening of Gomde Scotland a great success.

We all together initiated a place to help many future generations of practitioners. Getting the land was the easy part, but Rinpoche, and you - his students and friends - fill it with meaning and good will, caring and tending for this small Dharma seed, placed on the rocky soil of samsara. Rinpoche said this is your land, therefore, please, come enjoy and practice here, for only in this way it can bring immense benefit to all sentient beings.

Thank you again and here are a few glimpses into some joyful moments!
